

BDO Hockey Champions Trophy Women, Quilmes 2007

Japan 0 Australia 3

70' The game was quite quick, with a lot of ups and downs in the field and counterattacks on both sides.

70' The game finished and it was quite even. The ball was in possession of both teams although AUS was more effective when concreting a goal.

68' Although JPN is constantly trying AUS seems to be more effective in the concretion of goals.

* Goal: Peta GALLAGHER ****

65' Goal from AUS. Peta GALLAGHER. The ball was in the area and a great hit from this player which was not caught by the goalkeeper.

63' JPN wanting to score, but AUS goalkeeper is showing her strenghts when JPN approaches.

60' PC for JPN which created no danger for AUS goalkeeper

55' AUS does not give up in its counterattacks and at this moment is becoming dangerous.

53' JPN is attacking AUS goal once more although it is not creating too much danger.

51' PC for JPN staight hit and saved by the GK shot by the rebound number 13

* Goal: Amy KORNER ****

48' Corner shot KORNER deflected scoring goal for AUS.

48' Ball went into the goal but the umpire had already whistled for PC

47' Green Card for MORIMOTO (JPN)

46' AUS has just saved itself from a very dangerous JPN attack.

44' AUS is counterattacking and is closer than JPN at this moment for scoring.

40' JPN goalkeeper saved a ball hit by Amy KORNER that went above the posts

40' Although AUS tries JPN defense is doing quite well in not letting them get through

37' The second half has started and JPN has started almost scoring .

35' The first half was quite even at first until JPN discovered how to dominate the game. Although AUS scored the only goal of this first half, if JPN continues playing the same way and AUS does not react the score will surely change

35' First half has finished and AUS was saved by the horn.

33' The game is becoming even as AUS is trying to play and score its second goal before the first half ends

32' PC for AUS which did not imply any danger for JPN defense

30' PC for JPN that did not end in goal

25' JPN is clearly superior in the attempts of scoring, AUS cannot keep the ball for more than a couple of passes

18' ONO won a PC for JPN. First shot was safe and seconds one hit foot another PC for

JPN which was cleared by the defense

17' Finally JPN managed to enter AUS area and almost scored a goal if it were not for Rachel LYNCH

17' Finally JPN managed to enter AUS area and almost scored a goal if it were not for Rachel LYNCH

15' Japan is finding it difficult to pass into attack. AUS has improved its game although there is no goal danger

9' The game up to now is quite even. There is a lot of up and down the field but no clear movements for goal scoring. The possession of the ball is also quite even, and none of the two teams are superior.

* Goal: Renee TROST (pc) ****

4' AUS goal. The ball came in from the right a disputed ball as the goalkeeper tried to avoid it from entering, but it was not possible when TROST got hold of the ball and hit, going right inside

0' For the second match of the day the weather has cooled down a bit although it is still sunny. Better conditions for the game as the temperature has gone down

0' The umpires for this match are Lin MIAO (CHN) and Carolina de la FUENTE (ARG). The reserve umpire is Gina SPITALERI (ITA).